SAN DIEGO USBC SCHOLARSHIP FUND

CHARTER: POLICY and NOTIFICATION

SAN DIEGO USBC SCHOLARSHIP CHARTER/RULES

San Diego USBC Inc. shall manage and disburse the application for this scholarship.

This Organization will appoint SCHOLARSHIP Management and ACCOUNTING REPORT for TENPINS — dba (SMART.) of the United States Bowling Congress in Arlington, TX. to accept our Scholarship Fund.

(SMART) program will disburse all the Funds as we have established for each recipient. Contact information:
Email: smart@bowl.com or Phone: (800)514-BOWL, x8292 or 9323.

SDUSBC shall also help locate and secure existing bowling Scholarships for USBC Membership. There is no fee to use this program. Our funds are placed in an insured credited institution with an option to gain interest toward future Scholarships.

San Diego USBC shall appoint a Scholarship Committee to review the Scholarship Charter/Rules annually and select the final recipients for the scholarship.

SCHOLARSHIP AVAILABILITY

Applicable recipients' of the Scholarship Fund shall be eligible for funds of this entity for up to six (6) chronological years after their High School Graduation; (date of Scholarship issue or date of Military 1st enlistment Discharge) whichever date/time is later. The Scholarship Fund does not allow expiration date extensions. Unused Scholarship Funds are forfeited upon expiration. Scholarship awards are non-transferable. Recipients shall be honored with a Scholarship from SDUSBC on a one time basis only.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND USE

This Fund shall allow recipients to use scholarships to finance tuition fees, housing fees, meals, books, selected educational learning supplies and equipment while enrolled in an approved educational institution. Class supplies and equipment must have documentation from the educational institution stating the items are necessary for the successful completion of the course or program. SMART Program shall approve all other class supplies and equipment on a case-by-case basis over and above the original request.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Approved educational institutions shall include: accredited Universities and Colleges, Business Schools, Continuing Education courses, Educational Camps (such as Math, Sciences, Art, Computers, etc.) Professional Development Seminars and Workshops, Technical Schools, Trade Schools and Vocational Schools. SMART Program approves the eligibility of all courses, scholarship uses and educational institutions. This will not include transportation, clothing, sports camp's tuition, private tutor fees, and private primary and secondary tuition.

SCHOLARSHIP CHECK REQUESTS

The recipient or their Educational Institution may contact SMART Program to request a check or invoice payment. All requests must be in writing, a detailed letter or itemized invoice shall contain (or have attached) the following completed information: IE: The Scholarship recipients name, Educational Institution, location and address; course or program's title/name; scholarship amount requested; mailing address for Scholarship check: official enrollment verification (copy acceptable) and original receipts, if applicable. SMART Program does not consider recipient's grades when disbursing Scholarship Funds unless their Scholarship provider makes a request.

San Diego USBC Policy and Procedures Manual

Recipient must acquire and hold a passing grade level in all subjects selected. If the recipient 'drops' or leaves their choice of continued Education early (prior to grading/completion of subject's) then they must immediately notify the SMART Program. The Educational Institution is ALSO required to promptly return recipients unused Scholarship Fund/s to the SMART Program.

INFORMATION CHANGES

The SMART Program requires the recipient to immediately provide current and updated information when they move or changes location, telephone number, and name change/s. Recipients and Educational Institutions are encouraged to contact the SMART Program whenever clarification or assistance is required or needed.

NOTIFICATION OF EXPIRATION

Recipients shall be notified twice. Two years prior to expiration of recipients funds, again one year prior to expiration of recipients' funds, and immediately on the SMART Programs notification of recipients' discontinuance of further Educational studies and training.

SAN DIEGO USBC RECIPIENT SELECTIONS

Each potential recipient must comply with rules of application as set forth by this Association. IE: Each must accept their own responsibility in filling in all requested (and verified) information as requested in proper, legible and correct manner. Have all required information to the SDUSBC prior to the set closing date of 1 February of each current year.

RECIPIENT SELECTION

Each recipient shall complete all application procedures as set forth by this Association. IE: Student Requirements (Form Set # 1) AND Grading Point System (Form Set # 2). Both sets are required for each applicant.

ALL FORMS MUST RECEIVED BY THE SDUSBC PRIOR TO 1 FEBRUARY OF THE CURRENT YEAR

Final selection: count the top five boys (and any ties), top five girls (and any ties) shall be evaluated by the Scholarship Committee. If any youth member of the Scholarship Committee should be among the group of selectees, they shall be requested to step-aside and disallowed further involvement of decision. All remaining Members of the Scholarship Committee shall select the final recipients in judicious and logical manner.
